Didsbury Celebrates on July 1st.

A public meeting, called by Mayor Chambers, was held in the I.O.O.F. hall, on Friday evening last, to discuss the matter of holding a celebration on July 1st.
There was a fair attendance and considerable interest was displayed in the proceedings.

As a result of the views expressed by those present, it was decided to observe the Jubilee of Confederation on Friday, July 1st, and the program will consist of a procession, sports of various kinds, with a garden party and dance in the evening. Committees are now being formed, details of which will be given in another issue.

The sports and garden party will be held in the school grounds, and some form of illumination will be adopted for the evening.

With the various committees so far outlined, coupled with the enthusiasm being shown, it is safe to say that Didsbury's celebration will be one worth seeing.

Efforts are being made to have the country schools also included, and this attempt should have the heartly support of all.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

The Mountain W.I. met on Thursday, May 19th, at the home of Mrs. Atkinson. Roll call was answered by quotations suitable for Mother's Day. It was decided to hold the annual picnic at the community hall, July 5th, a dance will be held at night.
This institute will hold a basketry course in Community hall on June 25, 27, and 28. All those who wish to take this course please notify the secretary, Miss Eda Pearson, as soon as possible.
There will be time for each person to make a tray, basket and plate.
The basketry course is free.
Each student paying for the material she uses. At the next meeting, June 16th, there will be a bread contest.

RADIO OPERATES AT RED DEER.

CKLC, the new radio station of the Alberta Pacific Grain Company, now practically completed at Red Deer, will be the most powerful in Canada, according to Mr. J. R. Foster, who will be in charge. The actual power output will be two thousand watts, and the generator which supplies the current will deliver five thousand.

Regular programmes will be broadcast commencing this week, and the formal opening will take place early in June. It is the intention of the Company to give market service and lectures on topics of interest to farmers, besides studio programmes from Edmonton and Calgary.

PROVINCIAL HELP FOR ROADS.

The Alberta Motor Association is out after good roads, and expresses itself as being of the opinion that the building of main highways through urban municipalities should be undertaken by the provincial government.
Quite right. This year the provincial government expect to raise $1,500,000 from the motor vehicle license and gasoline tax, and a part of this might justly be put to the above purpose.
The wear and tear occasioned through traffic along our roads is assuming big proportions, and a time goes on this will naturally increase.

CHAPTER XXXVI.—Continued

The letters died away. The second witch arose and danced before the girl against the pillar. The glimmer from her lantern bathed the white form in scarlet, and new letters glowed in the sky—"DISTRUST."

The guests of Joanna stirred in their seats and settled again into tense, breathless silence. The third witch danced and held aloft her light. The figure in the market place took on a hue of green. New letters formed: "ENVY."

Yvonne, who had stared fascinated at the unfolding of the tableau, suddenly was conscious of a breath on her bare shoulder. She looked around and peered into the fixed eyes of Brandon. Around his forehead a bandage shone white. He stood beside the vacant chair into which he had intended to drop quietly. Yvonne watched his lips and saw them frame the whispered words—the words he remembered as Joanna's plaint to Eggleston, long ago, in the sombre library of the house on the Avenue when she told the banker of the three things that had haunted her in her coping with the problems of the girlhood of today—"Misunderstanding, Distrust and Envy."

Brandon was so tightly wrapped in the spell of his memory and this amazing reminder staged by Joanna with her troupe of actors and actresses especially brought from Paris, that Yvonne reached back and touched him to bring him to a realization of his surroundings. He brushed his hand across his eyes and dropped into the vacant chair.

"I am just in time," he remarked "to witness the sensation she arranged secretly. I fancy it will be most interesting."

Yvonne studied him a moment and then turned back to the scene on the stage.

SICK ABED EIGHT MONTHS

After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Could Do All Her Work and Gained in Weight

Melfort, Saskatchewan. — "I had inward troubles, headaches and severe pains in my back and sides. I was so sick generally that I could not sit up and I was in bed most of the time for eight months. An aunt came to visit and help me as I was unable to attend to my baby and could not do my work. She told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking two bottles I could get up and dress myself. I also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine. When I first took the medicine I only weighed seventy-eight pounds. Now I weigh twice as much. If I get out of sorts or weary and can't sleep I always take another bottle of the Vegetable Compound. I find it wonderfully good for female troubles, and have recommended it to my neighbors. I will be only too glad to answer any letters I receive asking about it." — Mrs. WILLIAM RITCHIE, Box 456, Melfort, Saskatchewan.

The three witches danced away into the background. Out of the crooked streets of the make-believe city other shapes were coming down into the open space — fantastic shapes, with empty faces pallid white with chalk, ghastly, grotesque. On the small stage it seemed as if there was an army of them, the population of the city they sprung from.

Brandon started so violently that Yvonne and Kenilworth shot a glance at him. When they looked back upon the stage they saw why. Unquestionably he was among those grotesque figures, for one of them walked with exaggerated grace and his head was bandaged!

And just then, as if a common realization had swept over the men and women, the puppets and mannequins, the pierrots and Columbine in the audience, there was a sibilant sound of pent-up breath escaping hundreds of lips. Almost every one of those who had come to the revel of the Golden Girl recognized, in one of those weird, white-faced figures on the stage—himself or herself!

Betty Weymouth saw that Joanna had caricatured her. Prince Michael saw himself, as surely as Brandon had recognized the graceful form in the bandage. John, who stood at the back of the pavilion saw a masque of himself. Everyone else saw something of his or her representation in the silent city's inhabitants as they trooped down into the market place around the almost nude girl who leaned against the column in the centre.

The girl raised her head and shook the long strands of her billowy corn yellow hair. When she saw that the witches had faded away from her, and that she was among the people of the city—the people of the world in which she found herself, her body straightened. The orchestra burst into a joyous rhythm. The girl leaped into the throng of masques and danced among them—danced gaily, her filmy draperies flowing in utter abandon.

"Watch the witches!" Brandon murmured. He spoke to himself, but Yvonne and Kenilworth nodded in acknowledgment that the thought had come to them, too.

A little company, in the masques of morose solemnity, assembled at one side of the stage. Up to them and around them the girl danced ecstatically. They swayed back and forth in time with the young feet that seemed to dance as if slipped with quicksilver. A note of mournfulness crept into the music. The girl danced slowly, more heavily. The witch with the yellow lantern, "Misunderstanding," fell into step behind her. The girl shrank; relentlessly the evil witch pressed upon her. An eerie lamentation shrieked from violins and reeds; slowly, mercilessly, "Misunderstanding" drove the lovely girl back to the pillar.

Again the dancer escaped her baleful guardians and moved merrily, hopefully, carelessly. She was driven back from the group that gathered around her, by "Envy." A third time she tried to spread her rhythmic doctrine of carefree youth and grace and vivaciousness, and again—!

In the audience a woman uttered a half scream, half moan. Another woman rose to reach over to her. A man stood. In an instant the puppets and mannequins, the pierrots and Columbines were on their feet. Many faces were as white as those of the mute characters on the stage. Now the three witches, all of them, were bearing down upon the girl who fought valiantly to overcome the misunderstanding, the distrust, and the envy of those white faced people who stifled her.

The music quickened. The girl, in a panic, sought to flee. The witches penned her in and drove her, step by step, while the silent masques circled and swayed monotonously, back to the water-trough post. The orchestra burst into a discordant crescendo. The dancer, helpless, discouraged, backed against the pillar and flung out her arms in mute appeal. The witches raised their lanterns in hideous glee. The green, yellow and scarlet rays pierced the filmy covering of the young body and bathed it in a mellow glow. And by some weird trickery of a hidden electrician the rays from the lantern of Misunderstanding, Distrust and Envy made a shadow against the city, a shadow black as night—the shadow of a cross.

This time it was Yvonne who whispered softly: "Crucified by those who don't know!"

With a common impulse Yvonne, Kenilworth and Dorminster, and even Betty Weymouth, made their way through the silent, thoughtful throng of departing guests, to the door that led onto the pavilion stage—the door through which Yvonne had seen Joanna disappear before the actors began their play. The director of the company of performers shook his head:

"Mademoiselle left with me the money to pay my troupe, and then went away," he said. "She was most generous, and we would speak more of our gratitude to her but she is not here."

John, his face as white as had been those of the actors, appeared out of the dark of the grounds. He confronted Yvonne.

"We must find Brandon—quick!" he exclaimed. "She has gone. I went to the house to wait for her. I wanted to say—a great many things. Your butler told me she left alone in her car. There is a message, he says, for Brandon."

The horns of the automobiles in which the guests at Villa Amette were starting for their homes and their reflections upon the amazing climax with which the Golden Girl had revealed them to themselves, echoed up from the sea road. John, Kenilworth, Dorminster and Yvonne hurried to Joanna's little sitting room, Martha, Cecile and Marie, Joanna's maids, with wonder and shock. In their faces, met them, Martha led Yvonne into the gorgeous bedroom and pointed to a glittering mass of jewels—every ornament from her mistress' gem case, piled on the brocaded satin covering. In her hand Martha held an envelope. Her fingers shook as she handed it to Yvonne.

"She said it was for Mr. Brandon," the maid exclaimed. "And she said I was to say there would be nothing more—ever!" Martha lost her fight to keep back her tears and her eyes suddenly swam with them. "She's gone, ma'am!" she cried. "She said somebody was taking her money away from her because she was too old fashioned inside!"

One of the supremely modern young persons whose left hands spread varicolored weaves on the silk counter in the great department store called to her companions on either side of her:

"Watch your step, children! Good Morning is coming!"

Mr. Harkness, the Buyer, sleek and self-sufficient as ever murmured soft apologies as he edged his way through the crowds before the counter to summon with his eyes, the girl with the shimmering gold brown hair. His manner was gentle, strangely respectful. His tone was almost deferential.

"You are to get your wraps, Miss Twenty-seven, that is to say, Miss Joanna! It is Mr. Graydon's request. You are to go in his car to this address on the Avenue!"

He handed Miss Twenty-seven—with her old number in her old job—the slip of paper on which he had written the directions given him by The Old Man's quiet secretary. When she read, the shadow came into her face, and something of dread. She had written a long, very long letter to this same address, to Andrew Eggleston. She had hoped she'd never have to face him. But she turned away, with a "thank you!" for Good Morning, and went to get her cloak, and to the subway.

In the big, solemn library in the house of Andrew Eggleston, on the Avenue, where Joanna once had spent the long hours of an afternoon with the blueprint she had filched from John's rooms spread between her and the banker, a remarkable company was gathered.

Graydon, his gray face alight with tender excitements, repeated to a man of his kind who stood apart with him, the thing he had said over and over again to everyone in the room:

"And she came back, her skirts as scant as ever, her lips as red and her hair was imperceptibly short. If there was any change at all it was in her eyes. They were just as brown and shining but, somehow, they gave the impression that someone had looked very deep in them—into their very depths, perhaps."

"And she asked if she might have her job, and her number, and gave me back her bank book—with nothing in it—and asked if I'd send it back to old Eggleston, here, and save her the trouble of seeing him. When I asked questions she said, simply: 'I learned a lot—that wasn't good to know. I want to forget it!'"

WHY TORTURE THE LITTLE ONES

Mothers, do you think it fair to torture your little ones by forcing them to take ill-tasting oils when they need a laxative medicine? Don't you find that the child's dread of these medicines often do more harm than good? Baby's Own Tablets are the modern substitute for these nauseous doses. They are the very medicine the child requires and are so pleasant to take that they are as easy to administer as a glass of water. They are the perfect remedy for all the minor ailments of little ones, being absolutely guaranteed from injurious drugs.

Baby's Own Tablets accomplish all that castor oil and other bad-tasting remedies can do. In fact they accomplish more as they do not leave the child exhausted from its struggle against taking medicine. They relieve teething pains, banish indigestion and constipation, break up colds and simple fevers and promote healthful, refreshing sleep. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A very interesting address on "Education in India" was given by Miss Johnson, of our public school staff, on Friday of last week, for the benefit of the Trail Rangers. The boys were very attentive throughout and expressed hearty appreciation of the lecturer's efforts.

This matter is being discussed around town relative to the formation of a town band. It is stated that encouragement received from various quarters justifies the hope that this can be accomplished, all it requires now is the co-operation of the residents.

The band certainly would be an acquisition, because in addition to forming an outlet for the musical propensities of some of our younger men, the organization would be available for various functions of a public nature.

We hope to hear progress being reported.

G. H. Owen, who was badly injured last week when his motor truck was smashed by a passenger train, is, we are glad to hear, considerably improved, and strong hopes are now held out for his recovery. He is still a patient at the Didsbury hospital, however, and will be probably for some time.

This is a move in the right direction and one which the members will appreciate more and more as time goes on. One is especially glad to see the cultivation of trees taken up more extensively here in Didsbury. The town is becoming prettier every year, and those who are endeavoring to do their bit are worthy of every support and encouragement.

Golf.

Golf is a form of work made expensive enough for a rich man to enjoy it. It is physical and mental exertion made attractive by the fact you have to dress for it in a $200,000.00 club house.

Golf is what letter-carrying, ditch-digging and carpet beating would be if those three tasks had to be performed on the same hot afternoon in short pants and colored socks by gouty looking gentlemen who require different implements for every mood.

Golf is the simplest looking game in the world when you decide to take it up and the toughest looking after you have been at it ten or twelve years.

It is probably the only known game a man can play as long as a quarter of a century and then discover that it was too deep for him in the first place.

The game is played on carefully selected grass with little white balls and as many clubs as the player can afford. These balls cost 75 cents to $2.50 and it is possible to support a family of ten people (all adults) for five months on the money represented by the balls lost by some golfers in a single afternoon.

A golf course has 18 holes, 17 of which are unnecessary and put in to make the game harder. A "hole" is a tin cup in the centre of a "green." A green is a small parcel of grass costing about $1.98 a blade and usually located between a brook, a couple of apple trees and a lot of "unfinished excavations."

The idea is to get the golf ball from a given point into each of the 18 cups in the fewest number of strokes and the greatest number of words.

The ball must not be thrown, pushed or carried. It must be propelled entirely by about $200 worth of curious looking implements especially designed to provoke the owner.

Each implement has a specific purpose and ultimately some golfers get to know what that purpose is. They are the exceptions.

After each hole has been completed the golfer counts his strokes. Then he subtracts six and says "Made that in five. That's one above par. Shall we play for fifty cents on the next hole, too, Ed?"

After the final, or eighteenth hole, the golfer adds up his score and stops when he has reached 87. He then has a swim, a pint of gin, sings "Sweet Adeline" with six or eight other liars and calls it the end of a perfect day.

FIRST DOCTORS Then a Skin Specialist Then a Bottle of D.D.D.

"How grateful I am to D.D.D.—I was a sufferer from eczema for twelve years. I tried every ointment advertised for the disease. Some gave me temporary relief. I also went to doctors and specialists and with the disease only partly healed had to pay their bills. I tried D.D.D. and after the second bottle, began to see signs of healing. Alberta is now the largest producer of oil and gas in Canada. In 1925 the production of gas amounted to approximately 9,000,000 thousand cubic feet, and the production of oil 183,000 barrels.

Louis Kon, trade delegate to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, confirms the report that an order for $1,000,000 worth of binder twine has been placed with a Brantford firm. Other large orders for Canada are pending.

During the season of 1926 over 36,000 square miles of mineralized areas in the Dominion were mapped out by means of aerial photography, according to the Department of Natural Resources at Ottawa. This is one of the most important uses to which aerial photography has been adapted.

A bill to establish a fish, game and wild life sanctuary in the interior of Nova Scotia has been passed in the Legislature. The sanctuary is to be located at the intersection of the counties of Annapolis, Digby, Yarmouth and Shelburne-Queens. Others may follow in other parts of the province in the near future.

A large single shipment of motor oil, a solid trainload of 26 cars of Marvelube, left Sarnia for various points in the west, but mostly for Vancouver. The oil is a Canadian-manufactured product which has been developed within the past year. At Fort William the special train was handed over to the Canadian Pacific Railway for exhibition along its lines.

Announcement of the offer of two scholarships annually by E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and Chancellor of McGill University, to the first male candidate in Greek and Latin, and to the highest male candidate in mathematics entering the University, was made recently by Sir Arthur Currie, principal of McGill. A prize of $500 is attached to each scholarship.

According to the department of Colonization and Development of the Canadian Pacific Railway, there is every indication that there will be a great increase in the number of immigrants coming to Canada this year compared with the number locating during 1925. It has been estimated that immigration figures for this year will be almost double those of the past year. Since the first of the present year Canadian Pacific liners have brought to Canada approximately 15,000 new settlers.

E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announced from headquarters recently that the name of the new hotel now being erected at Regina would be "Hotel Saskatchewan." The new C.P.R. hotel at this place will be an eleven story structure containing 284 bedrooms with bath and will cost in the neighborhood of $1,500,000, the opening being scheduled for May 24. The hotel is being built on one of the finest sites in the city on Victoria Avenue, facing the park. It will be only within a few minutes' walk from the C.P.R. Station.

The Spirit of Jubilee

It is now clearly manifest that the celebration of Canada's Diamond Jubilee will be general throughout the Dominion, and that the ceremonies marking this historic occasion will be colorful, entertaining and instructive as befits the sixtieth anniversary of a nation's birth. The columns of every daily and weekly paper, however small the latter may be, tell the same story of the holding of public meetings and the appointment of committees of representative citizens to plan a fitting celebration on July 1st and the succeeding two days. It is quite evident that it will be a very unprogressive and poor-spirited community which fails to commemorate the inauguration of the Dominion.

The very general interest being displayed is a gratifying evidence of the pride which Canadians have come to have in their country. It is an evidence of a real national spirit. Equally gratifying is the way in which local communities throughout the Dominion have accepted the lead of the National Committee and are planning to make Dominion Day celebrations truly commemorative of Confederation, rather than merely days of sporting events. Generally speaking, the ceremonies on July 1st will be patriotic and historical in character, while on July 2nd—also a national holiday in this Jubilee year—sports and other programmes will be carried out.

Time, energy and money spent in organizing truly worth-while commemorative ceremonies will be well expended only if the true, underlying spirit of the Jubilee is never lost sight of, but, on the contrary, is strongly emphasized. It is urged that every celebration on July 1st should have "a clear, strong, dominant note of patriotism, directing the hearts and minds of all to Canada." Particularly is it desired that in all Dominion Day ceremonies the most prominent place be given to the children of Canada.

The Jubilee ceremonies should very properly recall the condition of Canada prior to 1867, the lack of unity then existing, the suspicions entertained, the doubts and fears for the future which prevailed. It should be remembered that Confederation was devised to overcome those conditions, to find a solution for the existing problems and difficulties. We should as a people revive in our memories the patriotism, the vision, the self-sacrifice of the Fathers of Confederation who forgot all differences of party, of racial descent, of creed, in order to render service to Canada and the Empire. The spirit of the Fathers should be the spirit of this Diamond Jubilee.

Confederation brought union and strength out of disunion and weakness, it has replaced doubts and fears with confidence; discouragement has given place to courage and a justifiable pride. The achievements of the Canadian people in the succeeding sixty years are without a parallel in the history of the world. They have spanned and re-spanned a continent with bands of steel; they have created a strong and united nation out of isolated colonies; they have placed their flag on the seven seas, and carried their commerce to the uttermost parts of the globe; even in the fiery ordeal of the world's greatest war they took second place to no other people, but by their self-sacrifice and unremitting labor won the admiration of all men and won for Canada a place of equality with the world's greatest and proudest nations.

But Confederation made more than all this possible. It has resulted in revealing the people of Canada to themselves, in working together, in the solution of great national problems, in carrying through gigantic enterprises to success, and in devoting their energies to the development of some of the greatest natural resources possessed by any land, they have learned each others good qualities. They have given to the world a great object lesson of how two races, differing in language and in religion, can exercise tolerance and forbearance, and, appreciating the contribution which each has to make for the common good, unite to lay the foundations of a united state, progressive, prosperous and happy.

Recalling the difficulties and achievements of the past, glorying in the present, the real celebration of the Jubilee will be found in a re-affirmative of loyalty and a re-dedication of service to Canada on the part of individual Canadian citizens. This is the true, underlying spirit of Canada's Diamond Jubilee.

Northern B.C. Minerals

A force of engineers of the National Lead Company of New York will invade Northern British Columbia this month to investigate lead and other mineral properties. If their reports are favorable the company will likely become interested and engage in mining. The Portland Canal and Alice Arm will be visited first, after which the party will go to Terrace and other points along the Prince Rupert line of the Canadian National Railways.

White States in Empire

There are six great white states of the British Empire on the Pacific coast—one in Canada, five in Australia. These Empire Pacific states are larger and more populous than the four Pacific states of the United States. Canada alone is nearly as large as all Europe. It is larger than the United States with all its possessions.

Veteran Missionary Dead

Late Father Cochlin Was Prisoner of Indians in Rebellion of 1885

Rev. Fr. Louis Cochlin, O.M.I., veteran missionary among the Cree Indians, one-time prisoner in the camp of Poundmaker during the uprising of 1885, died at Battleford recently at the age of 71. One of the outstanding achievements of his career was his work in connection with the surrender of Poundmaker, the Indian chief, and peace parleys which followed.

Fr. Cochlin joined the Oblate Order of priests when a young man in France, and following his ordination to the priesthood, came to the northwest, taking up missionary work among the Indians immediately on his arrival.

Northern Grown Seed

Striking Success is Obtained With Canadian Alfalfa Seed

The superior quality of northern seed is nowhere more strikingly shown than in the success obtained with Canadian alfalfa seed. For a long time it was difficult to grow alfalfa successfully in many parts of Canada, but the development of an ample supply of hardy strains of seed has, to a certain extent, solved the problem of winter-killing and the Dominion's alfalfa crop increased from 238,000 acres in 1920 to $53,000 acres in 1926.

Sodium Sulphite

Large Deposits Have Been Located in Western Canada

In Canada sodium sulphate, in the form of salt cake, finds its largest use in the pulp and paper industry, and is also employed in the metallurgical, glass, dye, textile and other industries. Eighty-three occurrences of natural deposits of sodium sulphate have been located in Western Canada, principally in Saskatchewan, and an investigation of 21 of these by the Dominion Department of Mines shows the presence of over 115,000,000 tons of hydrous salts, mainly sodium sulphate.

Canadian Art in Paris

Exhibition of Canadian Paintings Praised by French Critics

From Charles Stewart, the Paris correspondent of the New York World, comes this comment on the most recent collection of Canada's art in Paris. He says:

"The exhibition of Canadian paintings sent over to Paris under the auspices of the Fine Arts Commissions of Canada came into the dingy galleries of the Tuilleries annex of the Luxembourg Museum like a fresh breeze of wind from the open spaces of the great Northwest. And it is thus that these works of art have been acclaimed by the French critics. There is much excellence in individual efforts and the show as a whole is of a high order of merit. The greater proportion of the 200 canvasses exhibited consists of decorative landscapes, among which 'A March Afternoon' and three other paintings by Maurice Cullen are conspicuous by their brilliancy, as are the vividly colored snow scenes by Clarence A. Gagnon. 'The magic of the feminine form divine,' says one of the critics, 'spiritualized through the eyes of the artist does not seem to appeal to the austerity of the Canadian painter.'

Saskatchewan Lady is Very Enthusiastic About Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mrs. E. M. Tatton Gave Them to Her Little Boy, Who Was Suffering From Urinary Trouble.

Waldron, Sask (Special).—"Ever since my little boy was born he has suffered with involuntary urination," writes Mrs. E. M. Tatton, a well-known resident of this place. "I thought he would grow out of this, but he did not do so. At times I thought it was pure laziness and used to spank him, until I discovered it was not the child's fault, but kidney weakness. I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills with great success, and he is never troubled now. My husband and I use them frequently whenever we have pains in the back."

Dodd's Kidney Pills have become a family remedy because people have tried them and found them good. They help Rheumatism, Lumbago, Diabetes, Lame Back, Heart Disease and Urinary troubles, because all of these are either kidney diseases or are caused by the kidneys failing to do their work.

ONTARIO BOY IS LEADING ORATOR OF THE DOMINION

Toronto.—Amid scenes of tremendous enthusiasm before a crowd of 10,000 people, Frederick Hotson, of Tavistock, Ont., Continuation School, was declared Dominion champion orator at the Arena here.

The judges announced their decision as follows:

1—Frederick Hotson, Tavistock, Ont.

2—Miss Shoonie Landry, St. Adolphe, Man.

3—Miss Jean Cameron, Vancouver. Julius Pozsar, Young, Sask., and Walter D. A. O'Hearn, Halifax, N.S., were the other competitors, each of whom had won a provincial contest and represented their provinces in tonight's Dominion final.

The subject of the speeches was: "Canada's Diamond Jubilee: Her Achievements Since Confederation."

The award for Mr. Hotson is a free trip to Europe this summer and the right to represent Canada at the International contest in Washington, D.C., this autumn, meeting competitors from Great Britain, France, United States, Japan, Mexico and the Hawaiian Islands.

The chairman was Right Hon. Sir William Mulock, Chief Justice of Ontario, and the judges were Chief Justice Latchford, John D. Falconbridge, K.C., dean of Osgoode Hall law school, and Professor Keys of the University of Toronto. Right Hon. Arthur Meighen had consented to act as a judge but he was confined to his bed with an attack of influenza and was unable to attend. The meeting was held under the direction of Dr. James L. Hughes, director for Canada of the Canadian and International oratorical contests.

The judges handed in individual judgments in which they marked the five contestants in the order of merit as each judged best. The marks were totaled and the winner declared. The judges, who were not sitting together, did not confer.

Dr. James L. Hughes before Chief Justice Latchford made his announcement of the result for which the crowd was waiting with breathless suspense, pointed out that each of the five contestants was 16 years of age and therefore would still be able to compete in the Dominion and International oratorical contests for another two years.

"If they do, the Lord help the rest of the world," he said.

Insane Drivers

Peculiar State of Affairs Reported From Detroit

Toronto.—According to a special despatch to The Toronto Globe from Detroit, an investigation held by the safety traffic department of the Detroit Automobile Club disclosed the fact that one third of the inmates confined for insanity at St. Joseph's Retreat, Dearborn, hold automobile driver's licenses.

In a communication from the Dearborn chief of police to the Automobile Club, the official says that one inmate of the asylum constantly drives his automobile at a speed in excess of 45 miles an hour, believing that at this speed his motor runs upon the power of a foreign spirit. Similar instances were cited as existing menaces to public safety when many of the inmates of the institution were periodically returned to private life.

A state wide investigation to determine the extent of this situation in similar institutions has been opened by M. C. Bristol, of the traffic department.

Issue Liquor Permits

Toronto.—Issuers of permits to purchase liquor at Ontario Government stores—when they are opened—supplied 1,755 persons in Toronto with the slips the first day on which they were available. Seven offices were open throughout the city. There was nothing in the nature of a rush to obtain the permits.

Fair grocers who are making too much money on their wares are being penalized by police, who forbid them the right to show their merchandise on the sidewalks.

Duty on Buggies and Cutters

Manufacturers Say That Industry is on the Wane

Ottawa.—The rate at which new methods of transportation have supplanted the old was graphically illustrated before the Tariff Advisory Board, when a representative of Canadian companies manufacturing cutters and buggies appeared to oppose an application for a reduction in the duties on these vehicles.

In the year 1910 eleven large firms were manufacturing buggies and cutters, and one was manufactured in the Dominion that year for every ninety persons.

In the year 1926 two firms were manufacturing these vehicles and there was one manufactured for every 1,800 persons.

These figures were submitted to the board by E. Sweet, Brantford, Ont., appearing for the two concerns manufacturing the vehicles at the present time. He said that the industry had been referred to by the applicants for a tariff reduction as a "dying industry." The figures would seem to bear this out and the manufacturers would request that if the industry had to die, it be allowed to die in peace.

R. J. Deachman presented the application for decreased duties on behalf of the Consumers' League of Canada. He submitted that buggies and cutters were the transportation vehicles of the poorer classes and that tariffs were high when compared with tariffs on automobiles and motorcycles. He asked that this difference be removed.

A. E. Darby, Canadian Council of Agriculture, supported the application.

Assimilating New Canadians

Western Canada Provides Adequate Means for University Education

Toronto.—That western Canada has already solved its great education problem in providing adequate means for the assimilation of New Canadians, was the feeling expressed by Rev. Father McWiggin, vicar-general of the Roman Catholic diocese of Edmonton, here. Dr. McWiggin is in Toronto as official representative of Archbishop O'Leary, of that diocese, for the 75th anniversary celebrations of de La Salle College and the inception of work by the Christian brothers.

"Education is the one thing the young westerner yearns for most," said Dr. McWiggin. "Education in Alberta has been brought to a high plane and we are working in the utmost harmony. It is no longer necessary for western youth to come east for professional teaching. The University of Alberta now provides complete and able faculties in arts, medicine, dentistry, agriculture and education."

Niagara Falls, N.Y.—Mrs. Elvira Hulet Gates, the first woman to be carried across the Niagara Gorge in a basket that hung from a cable stretched between the Canadian and American shores in early village days, is dead aged 85. The primitive method of travel before the bridges were constructed was an invention of Mrs. Gates' father.

Close Montreal Dairies

Montreal.—In an effort to stop the spread of typhoid fever, in Montreal, which has been prevalent here recently, two milk supply concerns in Montreal were ordered closed by Dr. A. Lessard, director of provincial bureau of health, here. The action was taken under the Quebec Public Health Act.

London.—King George and Queen Mary were guests of honor at a banquet of President Doumergue, of France, who is on a visit to Britain. The French embassy, where the banquet was given, was lavishly decorated. One hundred guests were present, including ambassadors with their wives and numerous members of society.

Buys More From U.S.

Ottawa.—Canada is buying more from the United States. During the 12 months ending March, imports from the United States were $688,000,000 against $610,000,000 in the previous year. Exports were $466,000,000, a decline of eight millions.

PROVINCES PLAN CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN FALL

Victoria, B.C.—The last week in September and the first week in October have been suggested by the British Columbia Government as the best time for holding the inter-provincial conference planned by the federal government for this year.

This suggestion was advanced by Hon. J. O. MacLean, acting premier, in reply to a communication from Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Canadian Secretary of State, who is making arrangements for the gathering of representatives from all parts of the Dominion to discuss inter-provincial relations.

Mr. Rinfret has informed Dr. MacLean that the federal authorities will prepare an agenda for the conference on the basis of suggestions from the provinces and forward it here as soon as possible.

Strawberry Yield Lighter

Increase in B.C. Acreage But Decrease in Ontario

Ottawa.—The commercial bearing acreage of strawberries in Ontario for 1927 is placed at 1,500 acres by the Dominion Fruit Branch, practically the same as last year. The principal commercial districts are as follows: Burlington, 700 acres; Niagara, 300; Norfolk, 400; London and Sarnia, 150; Prince Edward County, 750; other districts, 40.

Last year the commercial production in these districts was placed at 3,992,500 quarts. Bearing conditions of the plantations in the Clarkson and Norfolk districts this year range from 10 to 25 per cent. less than last year. This condition is attributed to the small runner growth produced last season.

Last year British Columbia claimed 1,225 acres, with a total yield of 3,920,000 quarts, while this year the bearing acreage is placed at 2,042 acres, which, based on normal production, should produce 6,126,000 quarts.

New Depot for Edmonton

Winnipeg.—Announcement was made by W. A. Kingsland, general manager of the western region, Canadian National Railways, that the contract for building the new station at Edmonton, has been awarded to the Permanent Construction Company, Edmonton. Work on the new structure will commence immediately.

Ramsay MacDonald Ends Visit

New York.—J. Ramsay MacDonald, former Prime Minister of Great Britain, sailed for home on the Cunard liner Berengaria May 17, ending his second visit to America, made to return with his daughter Isabel to the scenes of his honeymoon visit 30 years ago.

Robbery Is Frustrated

Winnipeg Police Take Into Custody Several Suspects

Winnipeg.—Within a few days Winnipeg was to have been the scene of a bank robbery, but a police raid frustrated elaborate plans alleged to have been made by a gang of local bandits, and five men are now charged with conspiracy to rob. Two other men are held as members of the gang, while several material witnesses are said to be in the police cells, although information concerning them has not been divulged.

The arrest of the gang follows a sweeping investigation of underworld hangouts in the city, during which scores of men known to the police were questioned. The robbery of the bank, according to the police, had been planned for April 22. On that date five men, armed with revolvers, drove in an automobile to a branch bank in the west end of the city. The presence of two men on bicycles, whom the bandits took for police officers, frustrated the robbery, but plans for a new attempt had been drawn up.

Fleet Will Watch Boundary

Ottawa Orders High Speed Boats to Patrol East Coast

Ottawa.—A fleet of more than twenty vessels, with a speed in some cases of about 30 knots, has been commissioned to patrol the coast line along the Maritimes in an effort to combat smuggling.

These vessels will be supplemented by 20 or 25 high-powered automobiles operating from strategic points where roads meet in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

Official announcement to this effect has been made by the Department of National Revenue.

Fewer Jobless in Britain

London.—For the first time since the general strike which occurred early in May, 1926, the unemployment figures for Great Britain are now below the million mark, being 998,000, or 23,000 fewer than a year ago. The improvement in employment is most noticeable in the iron, steel and engineering industries. There is still depression in the coal fields, however, and four mines in South Wales are closed temporarily.

Trade Increase During April

Ottawa.—Canada's trade continues to grow. Increase in April exports was greater than in imports, when comparison is made with April of last year. Total trade increase was $24,000,000, divided: Exports, increase, $17,000,000. Imports, increase, $7,000,000.

U.S. Envoy Coming

Washington.—Hon. William Phillips, newly appointed minister to Canada, will go to Ottawa the last of this month to present his letters of credence, he informed President Coolidge.

CADET SYSTEM OF TRAINING IS ABLY DEFENDED

Ottawa.—"It is the duty of a country which compels its manhood to serve in the hour of need, to provide some system of training, so that they may not be called upon to do something they know nothing about," declared Major-General J. H. MacBrien, retiring Chief-of-Staff, in his farewell message to Ashbury College cadet corps, at the annual inspection here. His address was a defence of the cadet system in Canada, recently subjected to attack.

The law of Canada requires that all males between the ages of 18 and 45 or 60 should serve in time of war, General MacBrien said, although this was not generally known. It therefore was the duty of Government to provide a system for training men to be prepared. The cadet system was a beginning for preparedness.

Cadet training developed the spirit of co-operation which served all well in every course of life.

Airplanes Will Spray Rust-Infected Fields

Experiments With Sulphur to be Started in July

Ottawa, Ont.—The department of agriculture has completed purchase of a large amount of sulphur to be used in spraying rust-infected grain fields in the Red River Valley.

The spraying is to be done by aeroplanes of the Royal Canadian Air Force and the work will be commenced early in July, according to Dr. J. H. Grisdale, deputy minister of agriculture, who discussed the prospects of the experiment. The use of sulphur, he said, had been found beneficial in the United States, although the spraying was a very dangerous operation on account of the necessity for low flying.

If the experiments prove a success the department will carry out a larger programme next year, he said.

Given Speed Trials

British Cruiser Berwick Develops Over 80,000 Horse Power

London.—The British cruiser Berwick, laid down in September, 1923, and the first of her class to be completed, was given her high speed trials Tuesday. For eight hours she was driven under full power. The propelling machinery developed over 80,000 horse power and the cruiser maintained a speed of between 32 and 35 knots.

Four other vessels of the same type were provided for under the 1923-24 estimate—the Cornwall, Cumberland, Kent and Suffolk. The ships are of the 10,000 tons standard displacement established by the Washington naval treaty.

Will Attend Celebration

Kingston, Ont.—Sir Hugh John MacDonald, Winnipeg, son of Sir John A. MacDonald, first Premier of Canada, has tentatively accepted the invitation of the City of Kingston, his birthplace, to attend the diamond jubilee celebration here. Sir Hugh John intimates that his health is not good just now but he is hoping it will be so improved that on July 1 he can attend the celebration and greet the many old friends he has here.

Oxford Students Protest

Oxford, England.—Hundreds of Oxford undergraduates were lined up for their turns at a trip in an aeroplane, at the aviation field, when protestors appeared and ordered them off the field. The students protested at being forbidden to fly and the protestors took many names. It is reported that many disguised themselves as workmen and made flights later in the day.

Russia Sending Delegation

Ottawa.—The United States of Soviet Russia, in other words the Soviet Republic, is sending a delegation of some thirty persons to the World's Poultry Congress to be held in Ottawa from July 27 to August 4. These will include the official delegates and some five or six representatives from the country at large.

British Legion Settlers Arrive

One of the finest single parties to swell Canadian population this year, arrived in Canada recently at Quebec aboard the Canadian Pacific steamer Montrose. The party of five families numbering 100 persons in all came to Canada under the auspices of the British Empire Service League, being the first to be sent to Canada through this immigration scheme.

The men are all ex-service veterans and are highly desirable types of settler on account of the fact that all have been trained in farm work at the Ministry of Labor's Training Farm at Brandon, Suffolk, England. They have been instructed in various branches of agriculture to enable them to meet conditions in this country as they find them.

The above photograph was taken at the C.P.R. station in Winnipeg and shows a number of this party waiting for the train that will carry them farther west to their new homes in Saskatchewan.
